

ADVANCED LEVEL

This Chinese advanced course is designed for those who have a higher proficiency level of Chinese. It is designed for those who are able to communicate fluently, understand well known common characters and write basic characters in daily life. Based on Textbook 4, this course is tailored to students needs, with discussions on topics that interest the group. The course will introduce local pronunciation and intonation, more new advanced words and useful expressions, more in-depth knowledge of Chinese culture, and improved text narrative ability.

ADVANCED
What can you achieve	<ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>• daily communication is more like native speakers, focusing on practising intonation and pauses in sentences.</li><li>• improve the ability to write Chinese characters, understand Chinese characters' cultural meanings with the creation of the characters (pictographic, indicative, associative, picto-phonetic).</li><li>• have a stronger listening and speaking ability that could be able to retell long conversations in own words.</li><li>• acquire more new advanced words, especially some function words and affixes.</li><li>• distinguish spoken Chinese and written Chinese expressions: spoken Chinese expressions are more native and written Chinese expressions require faithfulness, expressiveness and elegance.</li><li>• be able to have a rich discussion on some topics tailored to your needs, and fully express your views.</li><li>• develop deeper understanding about Chinese culture (the tradition of hard work and the pattern of the Chinese family).</li><li>• improve text narrative ability, help to tell a story in chronological order.</li></ul>
Textbook	Based on Contemporary Chinese series books 4, any learning and teaching recourses with your interested topics.
