

PG Colloquium: Cultural Construction in the USSR and States of the Former Soviet Bloc

17 - 18 March 2012

University of Nottingham

Department of History

University Park, Lenton Grove Room 18/19

Saturday 17. March 2012

12.45 Registration

1 – 1.10pm Welcome and Introduction by Liz Harvey (Head of School of Humanities)

Panel 1 1.10 - 2.05pm

When History Began Again: Romanian and Latvians Intellectuals Recasting the Communist Experience

Chair: Maiken Umbach (University of Nottingham)

Filip Boicu (University of Nottingham) - The Păltiniș School, the Păltiniș Group, or the Humanitas Group? Public intellectuals in Post-Communist Romania and the Intellectual Debate Regarding their Role and Discourses

Olga Procevska (University of Latvia) - Retrospective Construction of Resistance and Reinterpretation of Soviet Collaboration by Latvian Intellectuals

Coffee break 2.05 - 2.15pm

Panel 2 2.15 - 4.05pm

Refashioning Society, Building Subjects: Political Enlightenment and Social Interventionism in East-European Communism

Chair: Nick Baron (University of Nottingham)

Maria Goumerova (European University St.Petersburg) - Leisure Policy in 1920 – early 1930s in Soviet Russia

Roar Lishaugen (University of Oslo) - Reconstructing the Czech Reader: Normative Discourse on Readership in the early 1950s

Andru Chiorean (University of Nottingham) - A Site for Ideological Education: Institutional Censorship and the Forging of the Censor in Communist Romania, 1949-1953

Corina Dobos (University College London) - Ceaușescu's Pro-Natalism, 1966-1989: A Traditional Way of (Re)producing a Socialist Nation

Break 4.05 - 4.15pm

Panel 3 4.15 – 5.40pm

Constructing and Subverting Gender Roles in the former CSSR: Issues around Discourse and Representation

Chair: Jirina Smejkalova (University of Lincoln)

Jakub Machek (Charles University Prague) - Men at Town Halls and Women behind Counters. Czechoslovak Late Socialist TV Shows and the Construction of Male and Female Identities

Susanne Sklepek-Hatton (University of Nottingham) – The Power of the Middle Ground: Normalizing Discourse on Womanhood after the Prague Spring

Jan Matonoha (Newton International Fellow, University of Sheffield) - Dispositives of Silence and Injuring Identities. Interrogating Genealogies of Gender Silencing in Czech Literary Canon 1948-1989

Sunday 18. March 2012

Coffee/ Arrival 9 – 9.15am

Panel 4 9.15 – 10.35am

Constructing a Unitary Symbolic Space: The Appeal of Past Traditions in (Former) Yugoslavia

Chair: David Norris (University of Nottingham)

Srdan Atanasovski (Serbian Academy of Sciences and Arts) - Re-Empowering the Space: Songbooks, Partisan Narratives, and Producing New Core Landscapes of Socialist Yugoslavia

Aleksandar Pavlovic (University of Nottingham) - Turning Highwaymen into Partisans: the Appropriation of the 19th century Balkan Oral Tradition in the Socialist Yugoslavia

Piotr Goldstein (University of Manchester) - Why (And How) Are NGO Activists in Mostar and Novi Sad Communist? A Second Life or an Echo of a Cultural Construction?

Break 10.35 - 10.45am

Panel 5 10.45 - 12.05pm

More Than a Political Propagandistic Device: Re-Assessing the Role of Art in the USSR

Chair: Cynthia Marsh (University of Nottingham)

Jesse Gardiner (University of Nottingham) - Re-remembering as Rehabilitation: The Staging of Mayakovsky's Plays at the Moscow Theatre of Satire during the Khrushchev 'Thaw'

Susan Ikonen (University of Helsinki) - Not by Socialist Realism Alone - Discussion of Vladimir Dudintsev's Novel 'Not by Bread Alone' in the Soviet Union in 1956-1957

Jamie Rann (University College London) - Seriously Silly: Aleksei Kruchenykh's Unlikely Manifesto for the New Soviet Poetry

Lunch 12.05 - 1.30pm

Panel 6 1.30 - 2.20pm

A Depoliticized National Identity? Making National Cultures in the USSR

Chair: Siobhan Peeling (University of Nottingham)

Boram Shin (University of Cambridge) - Space between 'Socialism in Content' and 'National in Form': 1937 Dekada of Uzbek Arts and Literature and Uzbek-Soviet Identity Construction

Sevket Akyildiz (SOAS, University of London) - A Multicultural Pioneer Palace in Soviet Tashkent: Acquiring Civic Values in Leisure

Break 2.20 - 2.30pm

Panel 7 2.30 - 4.20pm

The Socialist Realist Film as a Space of Competing Visions

Chair: Polly McMichael (University of Nottingham)

Vladimir Dobrenko (London School of Economics) - The City as an Ideological Battleground: The Use of Space in Grigory Aleksandrov's Meeting on Elbe

Natalija Masjova (University of Ljubljana) - Alcohol in the Soviet Union: a case study of films of the second half of the Thaw

Tom McLenachan (University College London) - Iconoclastic Vision against Socialist Realism: The Prioritisation of Aesthetics over Ideology in 1960s Soviet Cinema

Yelena Popova (Artist, We Are Primary, Nottingham) - UNNAMED - An Artist Documentary (17 min) The Story of the Secret Nuclear Settlements in the Soviet Union, Uncovering their Utopian Potential and Hidden Atomic Disasters of the Cold War

Break 4.20 - 4.30pm

Panel 8 4.30 – 5.50pm

Producing Identities for New Times: Discourses and Public Memory in Post-Communism

Chair: Vladimir Zoric (University of Nottingham)

Dmitry Chernobrov (University of St. Andrews) - Redefining Identity through Conflict: Stereotypes in Post-Soviet Identity Construction

Tanya Zaharchenko (University of Cambridge) - On Binary Short-sightedness: A Glance at Post-Soviet Identity in Ukraine

Corina Crisu (University of Bucharest) - Transgressing Eastern and Western Borders: Domnica Rădulescu's 'Train to Trieste'

End of Colloquium