

University of Glasgow

Glasgow Human Rights Network
(GHRN)

GHRN Annual Human Rights Lecture

“The Middle East and North Africa Uprising: Putting Human Rights on the Agenda”

Kate Allen

UK Director of Amnesty International

Kate took up her post as Director of Amnesty International UK in early 2000. Before joining Amnesty International Kate was Deputy Chief Executive at the Refugee Council from 1995 to January 2000, where she was responsible for its policy and operational work and headed the UK emergency evacuation programmes for Bosnia and Kosovo. In 1998/99 Kate was seconded to the Immigration and Nationality Directorate of the Home Office for seven months, where she worked on the 1999 Asylum and Immigration Act. Before working with the Refugee Council Kate had a successful career in local government.

Thursday 31st January 2013

5.30 – 7.30 pm

Wolfson Medical School Building, Seminar Room 2

Location C8 on Campus map

The event will conclude with refreshments served in the Wolfson Atrium
All are welcome – event is free of charge

Please register here

<http://glasgowhumanrights.eventbrite.com/>

www.glasgow.ac.uk/humanrights